

STAT

Mr. Vernon A. Walters
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505
U.S.A.

Dear Mr. Walters:

Further to my curriculum vitae and letter to you of November 3, 1974, I must be in Vienna and Bonn during the week of December 5-11. Should I have heard from you upon my return to Geneva, I shall, of course, reply immediately. However, I will be leaving Geneva on December 15, following the completion of my

STAT after which I must go to Rome, Paris, Brussels and London. I intend to be in New York by mid-January, when I shall be happy to see you at your convenience. I can be contacted at the following address:

STAT

I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

STAT

*cy of this ltr
sent to Personnel
9 Dec 74*

STAT

74-1753/A

STAT

Washington, D. C. 20024

26 November 1974

STAT

Your letter and your resume which you submitted to General Vernon A. Walters have been referred to me for reply since you are residing overseas.

Appropriate officials are now reviewing your qualifications, and we will get in touch with you further in the near future.

STAT

If any change occurs in your address before you hear from us again, please notify us promptly. When writing from [redacted] should be directed to me at the above address.

Sincerely,

STAT

STAT

op/corres/lis
file sent to DDI/Pers
cc: DDCI
airmail

Atten [redacted]

STAT [REDACTED]

Mr. Vernon A. Walters
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505
U.S.A.

Dear Mr. Walters:

STAT While an undergraduate at [REDACTED] I was in contact with a [REDACTED] concerning the prospect of employment in your firm. Some years later, as an Avalon Fellow in the Master's degree [REDACTED]

STAT [REDACTED] in the [REDACTED]
I was again in contact with both as well as a colleague of his. I then received a letter at [REDACTED] during my Ph.D. studies again concerning employment.

I am very interested in working with the Central Intelligence Agency and wish to apply for a position.
Being familiar with the firm, I believe that working with the C.I.A. would be both interesting and challenging and that my qualifications and personal experiences would enable me to contribute to your Agency and subsequently enjoy a satisfying career.

I have taken the liberty of enclosing my curriculum vitae for your convenience. As can be seen, I have a background of leadership and decision-making within an academic and international advisory context. Of course, I shall be happy to supply references from [REDACTED]

STAT [REDACTED] Should you require any further particulars, please do not hesitate to notify me.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

STAT [REDACTED]

Encl.